Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group II, claims 26-47 and 51-52, in the reply filed on 11/9/04 is acknowledged.

Specification

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it includes that which may be implied and subject matter which is no longer in the pending claims (directed to canceled claims) see below. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains. If the patent is of a basic nature, the entire technical disclosure may be new in the art, and the abstract should be directed to the entire disclosure. If the patent is in the nature of an improvement in an old apparatus, process, product, or composition, the abstract should include the technical disclosure of the improvement. In certain patents, particularly those for compounds and compositions, wherein the process for making and/or the use thereof are not obvious, the abstract should set forth a process for making and/or use thereof. If the new technical disclosure involves modifications or alternatives, the abstract should mention by way of example the preferred modification or alternative.

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

Where applicable, the abstract should include the following:

- (1) if a machine or apparatus, its organization and operation;
- (2) if an article, its method of making;
- (3) if a chemical compound, its identity and use;
- (4) if a mixture, its ingredients;
- (5) if a process, the steps.

Extensive mechanical and design details of apparatus should not be given.

Art Unit: 3624

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 26-47 and 51-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Perkowski (US6625581B1).

Perkowski discloses a computer program product comprising: a computer readable medium having computer readable program code embodied therein, said computer readable program code configured to; obtain business process data from at least one first trading participant; process said business process data at a process management platform accessible via an interconnection fabric; transmit said business process data from said process management platform to at least one second trading participant (see col.1-8).

Perkowski discloses a computer program product comprising: a computer readable medium having computer readable program code for managing a plurality of business processes, said computer readable program code configured to: obtain a plurality of business processes from a plurality of first entities wherein said plurality of business processes comprises a sequence of messages linked by a predefined workflow and exchanged over a predefined period of time; manage said plurality of business processes at a process management platform; forwarding said plurality of business processes from said process management platform to at least one of a plurality of second entities (see col. 1-8 and figures 1-12).

Specifically as to claims 27-47, see above rejection for claim 26 and in addition, see figures 2-1, 2-2, 2a, and cols. 45-58.

Specifically as to claim 52, see above rejection for claims 26 and 51 in addition, see cols. 85-92.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kaplan (US005237157A) discloses a market data compilation system. Lupien et al. (US005845266A ) disclose a crossing network utilizing satisfaction density profile with price discovery features. Steinke (Network 1998) discloses integrated management with ROSETTANET. Stewart et al. (US2001/0039570A1) disclose a pluggable hub system for enterprise wide electronic collaboration. Petit et al. (US2002/0032622A1) disclose a shop management method and platform for performing the method. Ankireddipally et al. (US006772216B1) disclose an interaction protocol for managing cross company processes among network-distributed applications.

Art Unit: 3624
